

Language Arts & Reading

Students will:

- study figurative language
- identify the elements of poetry
- identify the elements of non-fiction reading

Math

Students will:

- multiply and divide whole numbers
- identify common factors,
- identify prime and composite numbers

Science

Students will:

- study properties of matter and apply them to real-life situations

Social Studies

Students will:

- research post-secondary education for our College Fair Project
- begin studying the exploration

Important Dates

Oct. 2: Watch DOGS begins

Oct. 4: Custodian Appreciation Day

Oct. 4-6: Camp Champions

Oct. 9: Student Holiday

Oct. 17: 5th Grade College Fair

Oct. 19: 5th Grade Student-Led Conferences

Oct. 21: Oktoberfest Fall Fair

Oct. 23-27: Red Ribbon Week

Oct. 27: WonderFULL Friday #2

Fifth Grade Teachers

Ms. Bammel: Math & Science

Mrs. Chiles: Language Arts & Social Studies

Ms. Hicks: Science & Social Studies

Mrs. Hill: Language Arts

Ms. Zipperer: Math

5th Grade News