

Language Arts & Reading

Students will understand, make inferences and draw conclusions about:

- the genres of literature & elements of drama
- nouns
- an author's use of figurative language

Math

Students will:

- use place value to represent whole numbers
- use place value to read, write, compare, and order whole numbers through the 999,999,999,999
- add and subtract positive rational numbers fluently

Science

Students will:

- demonstrate safe practices and the use of safety equipment
- collect, record, and analyze information using tools
- use safety equipment

Social Studies

Students will:

- use geographic tools and understand the concepts of regions in the U.S.
- explore reasons for exploration in the New World, important individuals, and the makeup of colonial government

Important Dates

Sept. 1:
Spirit Stick Sales During Lunch

Sept. 4:
Labor Day - No School

Sept. 12
Parent Orientation Night 6:15-7 PM

Sept. 19
Student Pictures

Sept. 25
UIL Begins

Sept. 29
Wonder-FULL Friday

Fifth Grade Teachers

Ms. Bammel: Math & Science

Mrs. Chiles: Language Arts & Social Studies

Ms. Hicks: Science & Social Studies

Ms. Zipperer: Math

Mrs. Hill: Language Arts

5th Grade News